STATEMENT

The serviceman named above died at ..... on .....

I am aware that only one medallion may be issued in respect of a deceased veteran; that the person first entitled to claim this is his widow, followed by his surviving sons in order of birth and then by his daughters in order of birth; or if unmarried by his brothers and then his sisters in the same order; or if these circumstances do not apply, by immediate next-of-kin in the same order or by the executors on behalf of the prime beneficiary in his estate. I am also aware that except in special circumstances entitlement will not be approved for grandchildren or others beyond the first generation of descent or succession.

My relationship to the deceased is .....
and the special reasons for my application are .....
.....
.....
.....

I am not aware of any other claimant in the above order of succession who has a greater entitlement to this award than myself.
